Motto	Australia's Research Powerhouse in the Capital

The Australian National University is Australia's only university created by the federal Parliament. Located in Canberra, ANU is ranked #1 in Australia for research output and has the best student-faculty ratio in the country.

Notable Alumni

Kevin Rudd — Former Prime Minister of Australia

2. Why Choose Australian?

- Australia's top research university
- Lowest student-faculty ratio in Australia (9:1)
- Canberra is a regional city — gives you 5-year post-study work visa
- Canberra is affordable — 20% cheaper than Sydney/Melbourne
- Strong in policy, computing, and science research
- Beautiful bushland campus in Australia's capital

| Academic Environment

Research-first and intimate. Small class sizes mean direct access to world-leading professors. ANU is serious about research — undergrads can work on real government and industry projects. The academic culture is collaborative and intellectually rigorous.

| Student Life

Canberra is a student-friendly city with a tight-knit community. It's smaller than Sydney but has everything you need. The nightlife is quieter but the social bonds are stronger. Students road-trip to Sydney (3 hrs) for big weekends.
