Motto	The Harvard of Canada — Montreal's Academic Jewel

McGill University is one of Canada's most prestigious universities, known as the 'Harvard of Canada'. Located in bilingual Montreal, McGill offers world-class education at a fraction of US costs, with a vibrant multicultural campus and strong research output.

Notable Alumni

Leonard Cohen — Legendary singer-songwriter

2. Why Choose McGill?

- QS #29 — Canada's most internationally diverse university
- 2,500+ Indian students — strong South Asian community
- Montreal is affordable — lowest cost of living among major Canadian cities
- McGill CS and Engineering are top 30 globally
- Bilingual city — English and French
- 3-year PGWP after graduation

| Academic Environment

Rigorous and research-focused. McGill is Canada's most academically demanding university. The CS program is particularly strong. Professors are world-class researchers. The bilingual environment (English/French) adds a unique dimension.

| Student Life

Montreal is Canada's cultural capital — festivals, food, and nightlife year-round. The cost of living is incredibly low for a major city. The Indian community in Montreal is tight-knit. Winter is cold but the city embraces it (Igloofest!).
