Motto	Cradle of Astronauts — Engineering Excellence

Purdue University is a public research university in West Lafayette, Indiana. Known as the 'Cradle of Astronauts,' Purdue has produced more NASA astronauts than any other university. Its engineering and aviation programs are world-renowned.

Notable Alumni

Neil Armstrong — First man on the moon (MS from Purdue)

Sundar Pichai — CEO of Google (worked at Purdue)

2. Why Choose Purdue?

- Top 10 Engineering school in the US at public university price
- More astronauts than any other university — NASA's favorite
- 2,500+ Indian students with strong STEM community
- Affordable tuition for the quality offered
- Home to the world's largest academic propulsion lab
- Strong recruiting from Boeing, Lockheed Martin, SpaceX

| Academic Environment

Engineering-first, hands-on learning. Purdue is where astronauts are made — literally. Zucrow Labs is the world's largest academic propulsion facility. Students build rockets, racecars, and robots. The education is rigorous but practical. Every engineering student touches real hardware.

| Student Life

Small-town America with a global community. West Lafayette is safe, affordable, and student-focused. The Indian community is tight — everyone knows each other. Purdue football games (Boiler Up!) are the social event of the week. Chicago is 2 hours away for city breaks.
