Motto	Portugal's Largest University — Europe's Best-Kept Secret

The University of Lisbon is Portugal's largest and most prestigious university. With 800+ years of history, affordable tuition, and a stunning location in one of Europe's most beautiful capitals, it's an increasingly popular destination for Indian students seeking a European education on a budget.

Notable Alumni

António Guterres — UN Secretary-General

2. Why Choose University?

- Portugal's #1 university — 800+ years of history
- Tuition is €3,000-7,000/year — cheapest in Western Europe
- Portugal's D7 visa leads to EU residency after 5 years
- English-taught master's programs in tech and business
- Lisbon is stunning — 300 days of sunshine, beaches, and history
- 600+ Indian students and growing fast

| Academic Environment

Historic but evolving rapidly. The university has strong research in marine science, AI, and sustainability. Class sizes are moderate. The academic culture is relaxed — less pressure than UK/US universities. Professors are accessible.

| Student Life

Lisbon is magical. Cobblestone streets, yellow trams, pasteis de nata on every corner. The cost of living is incredibly low for a European capital. The Indian community is small but growing. Weekends are for beach trips, exploring Sintra, and Porto.
